

Finding Your Legal Practice Board

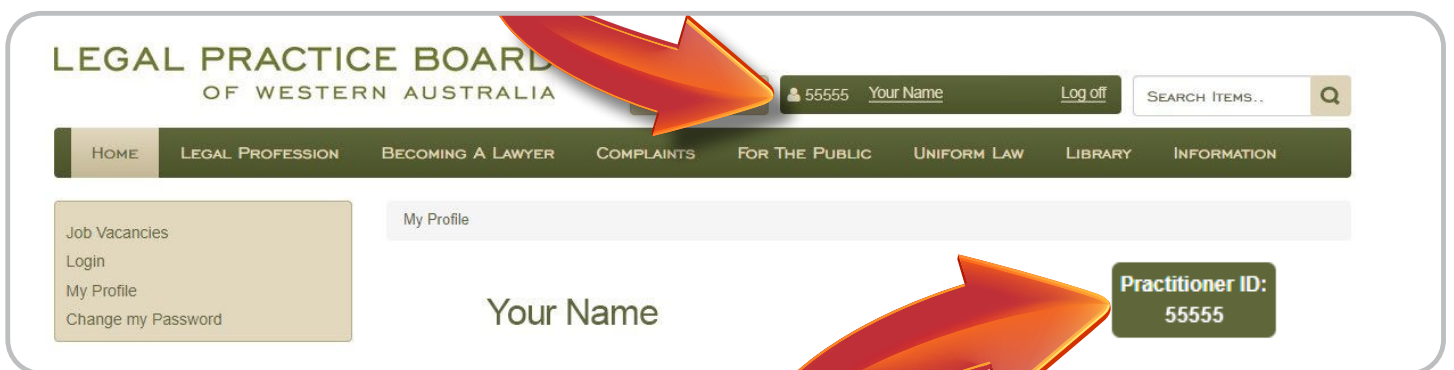

Practitioners who require CPD to maintain their annual practising certificate need to provide the Law Society with their Practitioner ID (PID) issued by the Legal Practice Board of Western Australia (LPBWA).

To find your PID, you will need to login to the Legal Practice Board website using your LPBWA Username and Password. (If you do not have your username or password, use the Forgotten Username/Password options to obtain this information.)

Once logged in to the LPBWA portal, your PID will be displayed in the locations indicated below.

You can email your LPB PID to the CPD team at cpd@lawsocietywa.asn.au or update it on the Law Society's Member Portal by clicking on the "My Membership" (top page menu) and then the "My Details" button.

Note: Your Law Society membership number is not your LPB PID. If you think you have provided the incorrect number to us, please email advocacy@lawsocietywa.asn.au and provide us with the correct number.
