CONDITIONS AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Conditions

The Law Society of Western Australia does not guarantee placement in a Locum role.
Responsibility for negotiating the terms of engagement and remuneration are between the locum and the prospective employer.
The Locum is not obligated to accept the terms of engagement and remuneration offered by a law practice that has obtained their information through the Law Society of Western Australia, and it is the Locum's responsibility to assess whether the law practice is suitable for them.
A law practice requesting a Locum may request employment references and may seek to undertake reference checks.
The information provided by registered Locum's will only be made available to law practices requesting a Locum.

Acknowledgement

*I accept the conditions above and acknowledge that any employment contract is strictly between myself and the law practice.
I understand it is my responsibility to comply with pre-employment and employment obligations.*

I consent to the Law Society of Western Australia publishing the above information and contact details on the Law Society website through the Society's Legal Locum Register service page.
